

Open Enrollment is starting soon!

Don't miss your chance to choose your own health insurance for the upcoming year!

Easy Tips to Prepare for Open Enrollment:

Think about your health needs for the upcoming year

- Make a list of preferred providers and any current or new prescriptions
- Note any planned procedure
- Gather personal info (SSN & birth dates) for yourself & any family members

Reflect on your current health plan

- In most cases, your carrier will offer the same or a similar plan for the following year
- Browse other available plans to make sure its still the best plan for you

Look for emails from Take Command

- Emails with enrollment information will start in November

Notional Open Enrollment Dates (for January 1st coverage):

November 1st - December 15th

IMPORTANT: Follow any employer-specific dates!

NOTE: Open Enrollment deadlines may vary by state.
